

NOTICE: CE040822

The Securities and Exchange Commission of Zimbabwe Board announces the appointment of Anymore Tarvinga as the Chief Executive Officer of the Securities and Exchange Commission of Zimbabwe, with effect from 1 September 2022.

Anymore Tarvinga
CFA, MSc (Finance and Investments), B. Com Finance

Anymore is a CFA Charter holder with over 14 years of experience in the banking and capital markets sectors, including as Acting Head of Research and Group Equities Market Analyst for Afrasia Kingdom Holdings, Investment Analyst for MMC Capital, and Group Research Analyst for Premier Finance group, now Ecobank.

His immediate past position was Head of the Zimbabwe Stock Exchange (ZSE) Markets responsible for ZSE operations, trading, and business development. He was instrumental in the diversification of the ZSE and capital markets in general through development of frameworks for new securities products such as Exchange Traded Funds and Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITS).

Apart from a deep knowledge of financial markets, Anymore brings a wealth of practical experience in marketing, business development, strategy and financial analysis.

He takes over from Tafadzwa Chinamo who left SECZim in January 2022. Head of Finance, Gerald Dzangare was acting chief executive officer February to August 2022.
